

If you and your children are in a temporary living situation, your children have the right to:

- Stay in the school of origin or choose the attendance area school where you are sleeping
- Receive transportation to and from your school of origin
- Immediately enroll in school, with or without school or health records
- Get free lunch and school fee waivers

You and your children are eligible for these rights if you:

- Share housing with others because of loss of housing, economic need, or domestic violence
- Live in a shelter or motel
- Live in a campground, park, car, or abandoned building
- Are without a permanent address
